PROFILE

Marie Dolleman recently joined Lee & Associates as an Administrative Assistant, bringing over 15 years of experience across various industries, including four years specializing in residential real estate. In her role at Lee & Associates, she supports part of the executive management team by coordinating transactions, preparing important documents, and managing the company's database systems, ensuring everything runs smoothly and efficiently.

A graduate of Virginia College, Marie is deeply committed to giving back to her community. She volunteers with organizations such as Harvest Hope and Meals on Wheels, helping provide essential support to those in need. She is also an active volunteer with United Way's Women United and a donor to United Way, further demonstrating her dedication to making a positive impact.

Originally from Seattle, Washington, Marie moved to Greenville in 2007 with her husband and three children after falling in love with the area's charm and all it has to offer. Since then, she has embraced the Upstate's vibrant community and enjoys spending her free time hiking the beautiful trails, cooking new recipes, and traveling with friends and family to explore new places, creating lasting memories.
