

OFFICE MARKET OVERVIEW

HARRISON LAIRD, Principal

Bright spots persist amongst volatility in the market. Increasing interest rates and vacancy rates, combined with falling rents, continue to put pressure on landlords. Leasing activity, specifically office relocations, ticked up as pre-pandemic leases and mid-pandemic extensions expire. Tenants continue to reevaluate space utilization, and seek high-quality, amenity-rich spaces to attract their employees back into the office. This has created a dichotomy of activity between the best spaces in the market and the rest. Investment sales have nearly flatlined, though the flurry of tenants in the market has fueled owner-user sales. Lee & Associates represented Pierce County in their purchase of 1501 Market Street in Tacoma, in the region's largest owner-user office acquisition of 2023.
