FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Amanda Hahnemann Named Principal at Lee & Associates Pacific Northwest

The CCIM-designated broker brings 13 years of experience and more than $204 million in recorded transaction value

November 19, 2026 (Bellevue, WA) — Lee & Associates Pacific Northwest is pleased to announce that Amanda Hahnemann, CCIM, has been named Principal. Hahnemann has been with the firm since 2019 and advises clients on commercial real estate investment sales and leasing throughout Washington State.

With 13 years of commercial real estate experience, Hahnemann's recorded transactions represent more than $204 million in transaction value and over 1.17 million square feet. She is especially committed to helping business owners build generational wealth through real estate and guiding families through estate-related property sales.

"Amanda's appointment to Principal reflects the expertise, dedication and integrity she brings to her clients and our firm," said Scott Hutchinson, President of Lee & Associates Pacific Northwest. "She is a trusted advisor, a strong advocate for her clients and a valued leader on our team."

"I'm honored to become a Principal at Lee & Associates," said Hahnemann. "I'm grateful for my family's support and for the guidance and encouragement of my colleagues at the firm. I also appreciate the trust and partnership of my clients and industry colleagues. I look forward to continuing to help businesses, property owners and families make thoughtful real estate decisions and build lasting value."

Hahnemann holds the CCIM designation, a professional credential in commercial investment real estate. She is also active in the commercial real estate community, serving as co-chair of CREW Seattle's Events Committee. In addition to her brokerage work, she serves on the City of Cle Elum Planning Commission.
