

INDUSTRIAL MARKET OVERVIEW

CLARKE ATTAWAY, Associate

Charleston's Industrial sector only gets stronger as our harbor gets deeper. We continue to see larger container ships like the CMA CGM MARCO POLO servicing our terminals as Charleston will soon to be the deepest harbor on the East Coast. This relates to record setting months in TEUs handled. Once fully operational, the Hugh K. Leatherman Terminal will double the current port capacity. Q2 was a strong quarter for automotive manufactures as Volvo, Mercedes, and Cummins Turbo all recently announced large capital investments to expand their facilities in the Lowcountry. Such commitment to the Tri-County area is one reason why developers have taken a bullish attitude with an increase in speculative projects coming online.
