

OFFICE MARKET OVERVIEW

HARRISON LAIRD, Principal

Demand continues to shift to the Eastside submarket with Meta recently signing a 220,000 SF lease in Redmond; conversely, large blocks of office space remain unleased in the Seattle CBD. Regional vacancy continues to hover at a 10-year high, over 10.4% for the greater Seattle Metro, though still below the national average which has ticked up to 12.5%. While absorption of new office space has slowed, dropping to ±380,000 SF for Q3, construction of new space remains at an all-time high, ±11.5 million SF. Increasing availability of space, in conjunction with downward economic pressure from international tensions, interest rate growth, and inflationary pressure has dampened rental rate growth and sales volume throughout the region.
