

INDUSTRIAL MARKET OVERVIEW

RYAN LAWLER, Senior Director

Quality flex/industrial availability remains difficult to come by even with a slight uptick in vacancy to $\pm 4.34\%$ between the Raleigh-Durham Market. Construction costs & scarce industrial land have pushed rates higher to justify new industrial product. As a result, many tenants are experiencing sticker shock forcing the difficult decision of renewing at their current location, settling for smaller space, or absorbing a higher cost of conducting business. With construction costs remaining an important variable, minimal negotiations are occurring during the proposal stage of a new deal. Similarly, Buyers are left with few to zero options to consider. Despite fluctuating interest rates, demand to purchase buildings remains high due to the area's growth and strong demographics.
