

MULTIFAMILY MARKET OVERVIEW

SARAH ORCUTT, Director of Research

The vacancy rate for multifamily units in the New York City metro area dropped 0.8 percentage points quarter over quarter to 2.9%, indicative of the persisting supply-demand imbalance as renters compete for a limited supply of units. Net absorption was positive for the fifth consecutive quarter at 22,779 units, though this represents a moderation from prior quarters. 65,618 units were under construction in the first quarter and 3,793 units were delivered. Average asking rents remained well above the national average at $3,003 per unit, a 2.8% year-over-year growth. Private and institutional players continued to lead the multifamily sales market this quarter, representing a combined 84% of total buyers and sellers.
