

OFFICE MARKET OVERVIEW

VINA MARUFU, Associate

Maryland's office sector remains mired in its prolonged reset, with fundamentals continuing to soften. Vacancy ticked up again to 29.52%, marking another record high as tenants shed space and hybrid work persists. Absorption stayed negative for the sixth consecutive quarter, underscoring muted demand. Asking rents held flat at $28.88 PSF, but investor sentiment remains cautious cap rates stayed elevated at 10.15%, and sale prices hover near multi-year lows. Construction remains stalled, with no new deliveries beyond the 231,500 SF long under development. Leasing was modest, led by legal and public-sector tenants such as Baker Donelson and the Maryland Department of Budget & Management, while sales activity was limited to opportunistic trades at steep discounts.
