

RETAIL MARKET OVERVIEW

STEPHEN LEIDER, Broker Associate

Santa Barbara's retail market remains tight with overall availability declining to 3.5% in Q4 2025, below the long-term average. Single-tenant availability increased to a decade high driven by a handful of large-format vacancies, while multi-tenant space remains extremely limited near 4%. Leasing activity has remained steady and total available space declined by roughly 100,000 SF over the past year. Development remains constrained, with just 42,000 SF under construction and minimal inventory growth in recent years. Asking rents increased 1.3% year over year, with strong cumulative gains over the past five years. Looking ahead, limited availability and supply constraints are expected to support stable retail fundamentals despite near-term consumer uncertainty.
